

Now that we have been able to read the story 'Going on a Bear Hunt' and now that we have collected our items, I would like you to arrange them on a large surface or stick them down on a piece of paper to make a collage. Remind yourself where the characters went and have a go at drawing each place – grass, water, mud, forest, snow. You can use different colours –that's the beauty of art – you can do what you like!