Be as creative as you like.....yellow mice, white horses...

Today we are going to plan which animals we are going to use in our own story. You can choose any animal and any colour. Here are some ideas...

If you choose a red elephant, you would write 'Red elephant, red elephant, what do you see?' Then you would write...'I see an orange flamingo looking at me'

If you choose an orange flamingo next, you would write 'Orange flamingo, orange flamingo, what do you see?' followed by 'I see a turquoise cat looking at me...'
