

Wednesday 3rd March

Theme

Today you are going to finish off putting the book together with the front cover and all the animal pages following after, with the writing. Please send us pictures of your books – we would love to see them.

If you finish that activity quickly today, have a think about all the things we need to do to look after our animals/pets. Have a look at this website click here

